HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION

DECISIONS

Communication No. R.6/24

Submitted by: Sandra Lovelace

Alleged victim: the author

State party concerned: Canada

Date of registered communication: 29 December 1977

Date of present decision: 18 July 1978

The Human Rights Committee decides:

1. That the communication be transmitted, under rule 91 of the provisional rules of procedure, to the State party concerned, requesting information and observations relevant to the question of admissibility of the communication. If the State party contends that domestic remedies have not been exhausted, it is requested to give details of the effective remedies available to the alleged victim in the circumstances of her case;

2. That the State party be informed that its information and observations should reach the Human Rights Committee in care of the Division of Human Rights, United Nations Office at Geneva, Switzerland, within six weeks of the date of the request;

3. That the Secretary-General transmit any information or observations received to the author as soon as possible to enable her to comment thereon if she so wishes. Any such comment should reach the Human Rights Committee, in care of the Division of Human Rights, United Nations Office at Geneva, Switzerland, within four weeks of the date of the transmittal;

4. That the text of this decision be communicated to the State party and the author.
