DECISION

Communication No. R.6/24

Submitted by: Sandra Lovelace

Alleged victim: the author

State party concerned: Canada

Date of registered communication: 29 December 1977

The Working Group of the Human Rights Committee, meeting on 6 April 1979, decides:

1. That the State party be reminded of the Committee's request for information and observations under rule 91 of its provisional rules of procedure;
2. That the State party be requested to furnish its information and observations within four weeks of the date of the reminder;
3. That any information or observations from the State party be transmitted to the author of the communication as soon as possible to enable her to comment thereon if she so wishes. Any such comments should reach the Human Rights Committee, in care of the Division of Human Rights, within four weeks of the date of the transmittal;
4. That consideration of the communication be continued at the next session of the Committee (seventh session) and its Working Group;
5. That this decision be communicated to the State party and the author of the communication.
