

How to apply for the Spring and Summer Law courses for Indigenous Students

Create or log into your Recruit account at

<https://apply.usask.ca/RecruitCE/Account/Login?ReturnUrl=%2frecruitce>

Select Start application

On the first Start a new application page select Other.

Applications

Start a new application

If you want to continue an existing application, click on My account and select the application you wish to continue from there.

What are you interested in applying for?

an Undergraduate degree

e.g. bachelor's degrees, non-direct entry degrees, diplomas and certificates. See list of undergraduate programs.

a Graduate Degree

e.g. master's and PhD degrees, graduate-level certificates. See list of graduate programs

Other

e.g. study English for Academic Purposes, take undergraduate classes as a visiting/audit student, be a Visiting Research Student or take graduate classes as a non-degree student

Start Over

On the second Start a new application page select Take Undergraduate classes as a visiting or audit student.

Start a new application

If you want to continue an existing application, click on My account and select the application you wish to continue from there.

Which do you wish to apply to?

English for Academic Purposes

Completion of this program will allow you to meet USask English Language requirements

Take Law classes as a visiting student

Take Undergraduate classes as a visiting or audit student

Visiting: Take classes that will transfer to a program at another university. Including Spring and Summer Law Courses for Indigenous students Audit: Take classes for interest only without earning credit.

Be a Visiting Research Student or take Graduate level classes

Read about Visiting Research Student. Read about Non-degree student

